Brantford Book Campers 2006

“Brantford Book Camp is an example of what happens when a community really cares about its children. For a whole week, those young people were involved in something that could well have a positive impact on their whole lives.” Valerie Sherrard, Participating Author 2006

“As a parent it is great to find a camp that she loves but even more wonderful to see her self esteem soar through one week”

Christine Blythe-Parent 2006

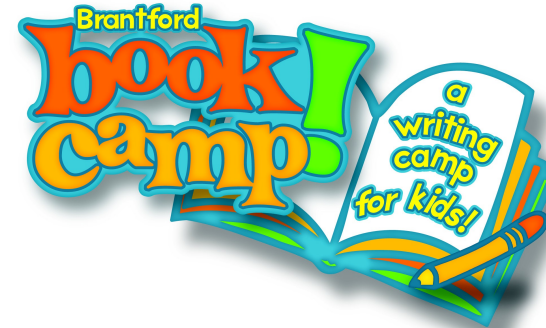

”On a scale of one to ten my 12 year old son gave camp an 11”
